

PRESS RELEASE FOR NOVEMBER 12, 2009

The Wet Your Pants Comedy Film Festival is proud to announce the line-up of films for the inaugural event being held on Saturday, November 21. After receiving over 30 films since the October 5th call for entries, the screening committee narrowed down the selections to the best 15 films. Those films will be played over four blocks (12 noon, 2:30pm, 5:00pm, and 7:30pm) throughout the day at the Carmel Community Playhouse at Clay Terrace. The line-up includes 3 feature films and 12 short films originating from as close as Indianapolis and surrounding areas to as far away as Los Angeles. Tickets are $8 for one block of films, $15 for two blocks, or $20 for all day and are now available online at www.wetyourpantsfilmfest.org. The awards (Best Film of 2009, Steve Pearce Memorial Award, and the Audience Choice Award) will be handed out after the last block of films. There will be a filmmaker Q&A after each screening as well as an after party to be held at Bar Louie in Clay Terrace. All proceeds from the event will go to the National Kidney Foundation of Indiana in memory of Steve Pearce.

Included in this years line-up are the following films: "Zorg & Andy", "Waffles For Virginia", "Do Pencils Go To Heaven", "Open Mic'rs", "Delusions", "29 Reasons To Run", "Cat Clock", "Clones Gone Wild", "The First Date", "I'm Not Talking To You", "The Last Bottle", "Das Spiel", "PHAT", "If A Tree Fell", and "Tree Talk." Please visit www.wetyourpantsfilmfest.org for detailed synopses of the films and more information.
